be made available on Sunday, they will be on-demand and available for up to 3 months post-Seminar.

Is there an option to pay later?

After completing the registration form you can choose to be invoiced and:

1. pay now via credit card
2. pay later via credit card
3. pay later in person via credit card, cash, or check.

You may receive an invoice or late payment notices, this is connected to our system and cannot be changed. We understand that many of the agencies we work with have varying fiscal years and you will not be penalized if your payment is late.

How many training hours will be offered?

Approximately 20 training hours can be obtained if an attendee attends all their sessions.

What if I need accommodation during the event?

If you will need any accommodation during the event i.e. hearing/visual impairment, space to pump or nurse, etc. Please email Kim Halfhill at events@naralicensing.org or Nikki Craig at coordinator@registryalliance.org.

What meals are included at the conference?

This year's seminar/symposium includes daily breakfast and coffee breaks from Monday to Wednesday, a Monday reception often used as dinner, and lunch on Tuesday. Attendees are responsible for arranging all other meals.
