

Tom van der Veen provides leadership and consultation services to governments, private organizations, and individuals to improve outcomes regarding licensing, accountability and other regulatory issues. Tom is the Children's Care Licensing Program Manager with the Oregon Department of Human Services.